Railway safety, including the European signalling system

2010/2576(RSP) - 25/02/2010

The House held a debate, following on the Commission statement, on railway safety, including the European signalling system.

The debate was not followed by the adoption of a resolution.