

Protection of consumers: distance contracts

1992/0411(COD) - 26/02/1996

The Council decided to convene the Conciliation Committee, in accordance with Article 189(3) of the Treaty, concerning the proposal for a Directive concerning the protection of consumers in respect of distance contracts. The matter comes under the co-decision procedure between the European Parliament and the Council, and the Council recorded that it could not approve all the amendments to its common position adopted by the European Parliament in second reading.
