

Maritime safety: enforcement of international standards in respect of shipping using Community ports

1994/0068(SYN) - 16/05/1995

Commissioner KINNOCK stated that the Commission could not take over the EP's amendments since, as far as inspections were concerned, they went beyond the powers of supervision granted to the Member States by the international conventions, on which the draft Directive was based.