Extension of PHARE programme to Croatia (amend. Regul. 3906/89/EEC)

1994/0271(CNS) - 27/04/1995

Commissioner BJERREGAARD rejected both of the amendments on human rights as they were superfluous. Respect for human rights was mentioned in the cooperation and trade agreements and the concept of human rights could not be included in the Commission’s annual report as it was an administrative rather than a political document.
