EC/Vietnam agreement: cooperation agreement

1995/0173(CNS) - 01/02/1996

Commissioner MARIN began by outlining the new prospects in sight from the following March, after the Bangkok Summit. As far as relations with Vietnam were concerned, he was sure that these could be strengthened in such a way that various other problems could also be resolved; in this regard he said that the EU/Vietnam Joint Committee would provide a forum for examining difficult issues such as human rights.
