Community policy in the field of telecommunications and postal services

1996/0042(CNS) - 27/09/1996

The ministers declared that they would prefer to see a directive adopted. This work was to be entrusted to the Permanent Representatives Committee, whose remit would be to reach agreement on a project that would represent a gradual move towards liberalisation by drawing up a timetable and by submitting proposals designed to help find dates agreeable to all parties.
