Harmonised safety regime for fishing vessels of 24 metres in length and over

1996/0168(SYN) - 05/11/1997

Commissioner Kinnock stressed that this proposal would ensure a uniform level of safety and the highest degree of protection for people on board vessels. He also highlighted the commercial benefit that this would bring if the distortions that hampered competition could be ended as a result.