1994 discharge: European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training ECDVT budget

1996/2044(DEC) - 19/03/1996

The rapporteur took note of the criticism levied against the CEDEFOP, especially in the audit report drafted at the specific request of the European Parliament, which stated that the CEDEFOP was still useful and still had a role to play, but should adapt to the requirements of its new environment. The conclusions of the audit include a series of recommendations along these lines. Mr KELLETT-BOWMAN (PPE, UK) therefore persuaded the Committee on Budgetary Control to propose that Parliament reserve its decision on discharge for the CEFEDOP for 1994 until it, alone or as a member of a delegation, had confirmed that it was able to meet the conditions for discharge, i.e. value for money for expenditure, efficient use of human resources, quality products which respond to the needs of its clients and a clear and coherent role within the policies of the Community on vocational training.
