

Audiovisual industry: training programme for professionals, MEDIA-Training 2001-2005

1999/0275(COD) - 04/12/2000

Although the Council had not accepted Parliament's amendments relating to the budget for the programme, it had incorporated most of the other amendments. The committee therefore took the view that the programme should start as planned in January 2001 and approved the common position in order to avoid a conciliation procedure which might have delayed implementation.
