Structural improvements in inland waterway transport (amend. Regulation (EEC) No 1101/89)

1995/0122(SYN) - 15/07/1996

The Commission accepted the Council's position because the target of reducing the capacity of the fleet by approximately 15% over three years had been maintained and the Member States in question would be required to pool sufficient funds to achieve this.