Generalized system of preferences: revision of the system 1995-1997 for agricultural products

1994/0210(CNS) - 19/12/1994 - Final act

The Council adopted Regulation (EC) No 3282/94 aimed at extending by one year (until 31 December 1995) the application of Regulations (EEC) Nos 3833/90 and 3900/91 applying generalised tariff preferences in respect of certain agricultural products originating in developing countries. In addition to this extension, South Africa was added to the list of beneficiary countries for certain agricultural products (on the understanding that it would be reviewed before 1 July 1995) and specific adjustments were envisaged for certain products from countries that were engaged in combating the production and trafficking of drugs (Andean countries, countries in Central America and Venezuela, including for certain fisheries products).
