Resolution on the programme of the Irish Presidency-in-office of the Council and the European Constitution

2004/2506(RSP) - 29/01/2004 - Text adopted by Parliament, topical subjects

The European Parliament welcomed the positive approach adopted by the new Presidency-in-office of the Council towards concluding the Intergovernmental Conference on the basis of the Convention's Draft Constitution. Parliament urged the IGC to complete its work before 1 May 2004, the date on which the Union is set to enlarge to include the ten new Member States.
