EC/Kyrgyzstan Partnership and Cooperation Agreement

1994/0224(AVC) - 25/08/1995 - Supplementary legislative basic document

In a letter addressed to the President of the European Parliament dated 24 August 1995 the Council forwarded to Parliament the definitive draft decision concluding the EC-Kirghizstan cooperation agreement, on the understanding that the legal uncertainties affecting the agreement had been removed. The definitive legal basis is therefore as follows: - Article 95 of the ECSC Treaty; - Articles 54 (second paragraph) and 57 (second paragraph) of the EC Treaty (final sentence); - Articles 66, 73c (second paragraph) of the EC Treaty; - Articles 75 and 84 (second paragraph) of the EC Treaty; - Articles 99, 100, 113 and 235, in conjunction with Article 228 (second and third paragraphs, second line) of the EC Treaty; - Article 101 of the EURATOM Treaty. The position which the Community is to adopt within the Cooperation Council and Committee is to be determined by the Council, at the Commission's instigation, or, if necessary, by the Commission in accordance with the EC, ECSC and EURATOM Treaties.

EC/Kyrgyzstan Partnership and Cooperation Agreement

1994/0224(AVC) - 24/07/1995

In a letter addressed to the President of the European Parliament dated 24 July 1995, the Council presented to Parliament the draft decision concluding the agreement, while at the same time bringing to its attention that doubts still remained as to the inclusion of certain articles in the legal basis of the agreement. The Council reserved the right to determine the appropriate legal basis in a definitive manner at some later stage and undertook to inform Parliament of this in good time. Nevertheless, it would send the text of the agreement to Parliament in order that the latter might commence its work. As the wording stood at present, the legal basis of the agreement was as follows: - Article 95 of the ECSC Treaty; - Articles 54 (second paragraph) and 57 (second paragraph) of the EC Treaty (final sentence); - Articles 66, 73c (second paragraph) of the EC Treaty; - Articles 75 and 84 (second paragraph); - Articles 99, 100, 100a, 113 and 235, in conjunction with Article 228 (second and third paragraphs, second line), of the EC Treaty; - Article 101 of the EURATOM Treaty.

EC/Kyrgyzstan Partnership and Cooperation Agreement

1994/0224(AVC) - 05/10/1994 - Initial legislative proposal

The proposal for a decision seeks to permit the conclusion of a partnership and cooperation agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and the Kyrgyz Republic, of the other. This mixed agreement covers sectors of national and Community competence. The agreement is concluded for a period of 10 years and establishes a political dialogue. It comprises measures relating to trade in goods, conditions relating to employment, the establishment and operation of companies, the provision of cross-border services, payments and capital, competition, the protection of intellectual, industrial and commercial property, legislative cooperation, economic and financial cooperation and cultural cooperation. In addition, the Agreement includes a conditionality clause on human rights, allowing its suspension - on a unilateral basis if necessary - in the event of a breach of its essential elements, which are respect for democratic principles, human rights and the principles of the market economy. The Agreement will be administered by a threefold structure, comprising a Cooperation Council, a Cooperation Committee and a Parliamentary Cooperation Committee. The provisions relating to customs cooperation will be the object of a separate protocol. This Agreement replaces the 1989 Agreement on trade and commercial and economic cooperation between the European Communities and the USSR, insofar as it relates specifically to the interests of the Kyrgyz Republic.

EC/Kyrgyzstan Partnership and Cooperation Agreement

1994/0224(AVC) - 30/11/1995 - Text adopted by Parliament, 1st reading/single reading

In adopting the report by Mrs LALUMIERE (ARE, F), Parliament gave its assent to the proposal for a decision to conclude a partnership and cooperation agreement between the European Communities and the Kyrgyz Republic.

EC/Kyrgyzstan Partnership and Cooperation Agreement

1994/0224(AVC) - 08/05/1995 - Modified legislative proposal

Given the Court of Justice's opinion 1/94 of 15 November 1994 on the European Community's competence to conclude the agreements resulting from the Uruguay Round, the procedure envisaged for the present agreement had proven to be inappropriate. Similarly, the provisional application of the Energy Charter (signed on 17 December 1994) required that the legal basis of the agreement be changed whilst respecting the differences between the contents of the partnership and cooperation agreement and the Charter. The legal bases to be added further to Articles 113 and 235 of the EC Treaty and Article 101 of the ECSC Treaty initially envisaged (in conjunction with Article 228), were the following: - Article 54(2) and the last sentence of Article 57(2), as with the Energy Charter: the requirements set out in the agreements relating to establishment affected the rules adopted by the Communities on issues relating to the stock exchange and accounting as well as banking and insurance matters; - Article 73c(2) of the EC Treaty, as with the Charter: the requirements set out in the agreement relating to the free movement of capital and payments have concerned the Community since the entry into force of the second stage of EMU; - Articles 75 and 84(2) of the EC Treaty: contrary to the Charter, the agreement would have a certain impact on Community transport regulations (primarily in the maritime sector). According to the Commission, it was not necessary to add any other legal bases, particularly since Article 235 more or less supported the economic cooperation provided for in the agreement. It was not a question of purely extending significantly the provisions in the 1989 agreement. Community competence was not exclusive; rather it should operate in tandem with that of the Member States. The Court's reflections as to the conditions in which exclusive competence could be based on Article 235 through the application of the AETR case law were thus not relevant in this case. Furthermore, the ECSC Consultative Committee had been consulted with regard to the conclusion of the interim agreement for the partnership agreement with Kyrgyzstan (on 31 March 1995). As a result, the Committee would not discuss this agreement since the ECSC provisions of the interim agreement were exactly the same as those of the partnership agreement.
