1996/0114(CNS) - 14/01/1998 - Text adopted by Parliament, partial vote at 1st reading/single reading

After having voted to alter the legal basis (Article 100a rather than Article 43 of the EC Treaty) and adopted all the amendments proposed by the Committee on the Environment to the proposal concerning the simplification of the vertical directives on food, the European Parliament, in response to a request from Mr Paul LANNOYE (Greens, B), postponed its vote on the legislative proposals. Mr LANNOYE gave as grounds for his request for postponement the Commission's refusal to accept a large number of Parliament's amendments.

1996/0114(CNS) - 31/10/1996

Subject to a number of comments, the Committee approves the Commission's proposals. It believes that they simplify existing directives on the products in question, and make them less prescriptive. The Committee also acknowledges the Commission's concentration on horizontal measures to protect consumers and the environment. The ESC believes that all references to the various additives should be omitted from the draft directives, since they are now regulated by the Directives on additives, sweeteners and colours. Instead, in each directive for foods where additives are permitted, there would be a separate article with a cross-reference to the three additive directives. The Committee considers the proposed implementation dates throughout to be unrealistically short. Given the time required nowadays for finalizing directives and the time taken by Member States for national implementation, they should all be revised. With reference to languages, the Committee points out that in several cases the proposal prescribes product names which are not those used by all consumers in a particular language. Normal consumer usage should be permitted throughout, and the Austrian terms must be added throughout.

PURPOSE : to establish rules on the production and marketing of honey. COMMUNITY MEASURE : Council Directive 2001/110/EC relating to honey. CONTENT : The products within the scope of this Directive are defined in Annex I, and must meet the requirements in the Directive. Directive 2001/13 /EC on food labelling applies to the products within the scope of the Directive, subject to certain conditions. These include particular provisions on baker's honey; provisions on labelling regarding the country or countries of origin where the honey has been harvested; and cases where honey originates from more than one Member State or third country. The Commission may adopt methods to permit verification of compliance of honey with the provisions of this Directive, in accordance with the comitology procedure laid down. Directive 74/409/EEC is repealed with effect from 01/08/03.

1996/0114(CNS) - 04/05/1999 - Text adopted by Parliament, 1st reading/single reading

Under consultation procedure, the European Parliament adopted the report by Paul A.A.J.G. Lannoye (V,BE), which approves the Commission proposal for a Council directive relating to honey, subject to amendments adopted at the sitting of 14/01/98, together with a compromise amendment making it obligatory that the country of origin be indicated on the label of honeys which originate in a country outside the Community.

1996/0114(CNS) - 17/04/1996 - Legislative proposal

OBJECTIVE: pursuant to the undertakings given by the Community, simplification of certain vertical Directives relating to food to take account only of the essential requirements to be met by the products they cover in order that those products may move freely within the internal market. SUBSTANCE: the proposal for a Council Directive deletes the exemption in Directive 74/409/EEC allowing Member States to authorize designation of industrial or baker's honey as 'honey'. Moreover, the Commission intends to encourage the circles concerned to develop harmonized methods of analysis allowing verification of compliance with the quality specifications for honeys of various botanical or geographical origin.
