Regulation 1998/1223
OJ L 168 13.06.1998, p. 0001 Summary

Social security: employed persons, self-employed persons and their families (amend. Regul. 1408/71/EEC, 574/72/EEC)

1997/0201(CNS) - 30/04/1998 - Text adopted by Parliament, 1st reading/single reading

Adopting the report by Mrs Ria OOMEN-RUIJTEN (PPE, NL), the European Parliament confirmed the amendments proposed by the plenary on 31 March 1998 modifying the basic regulation on social security for migrant workers, following referral back to committee. For the record, these amendments seek to: - extend the field of application of this regulation to employed and self-employed persons and students and the members of their families subject to the legislation of a Member State who are nationals of one Member State or are stateless or refugees; - provide that retired former frontier workers and members of their families can benefit from social security entitlements in their country of residence.

Social security: employed persons, self-employed persons and their families (amend. Regul. 1408/71/EEC, 574/72/EEC)

1997/0201(CNS) - 18/07/1997 - Legislative proposal

OBJECTIVE: Updating Community Regulations (EEC Nos 1408/71 and 574/72 relating to social security for workers and self-employed persons and members of their families moving within the Community, to take account of changes to national legislation and certain bilateral conventions concluded between Member States. SUBSTANCE: The amendments to the Regulation are of a technical character and are mainly aimed at incorporating in Community legislation the amendments made by Member States to their social security legislation.

Social security: employed persons, self-employed persons and their families (amend. Regul. 1408/71/EEC, 574/72/EEC)

1997/0201(CNS) - 10/12/1997 - Economic and Social Committee: opinion, report

Here the Committee is pleased to note - while not yet entering into details - that the Commission has also issued a proposal for the initial regulation of transfer of supplementary pension rights. This will complement the rules on statutory schemes laid down in Regulation 1408/71, which the present proposal updates and amends. Comprehensive rules are needed on the transfer of all pension rights, whether statutory or supplementary. Supplementary schemes have been growing steadily in recent years, especially among more highly skilled persons who are more likely to move around. It is to be hoped that real progress can now be achieved in removing obstacles to mobility.

1997/0201(CNS) - 04/06/1998 - Final act

OBJECTIVE: to update Community Regulations (EEC) Nos 1408/71 and 574/82 on the social security of migrant workers and members of their families moving within the Community so as to take account of changes in national legislation and certain bilateral agreements between Member States. COMMUNITY MEASURE: Council Regulation (EC) 1223/98 amending Regulation (EEC) No 1408/71 on the application of social security schemes to employed persons, to self-employed persons and to members of their families moving within the Community and Regulation (EEC) No 574 /72 laying down the procedure for implementing Regulation (EEC) No 1408/71. SUBSTANCE: the amendments to the Regulation are of a technical nature and mainly concern the insertion in Community legislation of amendments by Member States to their social security legislation. ENTRY INTO FORCE: 01.07.1998, except for certain internal provisions of the Regulation, which are to enter into force on different dates.

Social security: employed persons, self-employed persons and their families (amend. Regul. 1408/71/EEC, 574/72/EEC)

1997/0201(CNS) - 31/03/1998 - Text adopted by Parliament, partial vote at 1st reading/single reading

At the request of its rapporteur, Mrs Ria OOMEN-RUIJTEN (EPP, NL) Parliament referred back to committee the report on amendment of the basic regulation on social security for migrant workers. Parliament justified its request for referral back to committee because of the attitude of the Council, which refused to take into account the amendments tabled by the European Parliament. At its sitting of 31 March 1998 Parliament approved amendments seeking to: - extend this regulation to employed and self-employed persons and students and the members of their families subject to the legislation of a Member State and who are nationals of one Member State, or are stateless or refugees residing within the territory of a Member State, - provide that former frontier workers (retired persons who are entitled to health care only in their country of residence) and members of their families can benefit from social security entitlements when the worker has ceased to be in work.
