Seafarers: minimum level of training

2000/0131(COD) - 12/12/2000 - Text adopted by Parliament, 1st reading/single reading

The European Parliament approved the proposal concerning the minimum level of training for seafarers. (Procedure without report).

Seafarers: minimum level of training

2000/0131(COD) - 06/06/2000 - Legislative proposal

PURPOSE : to present a proposal for a European Parliament and Council Directive on the minimum level of training of seafarers (consolidated text). CONTENT : in the context of a people's Europe, the Commission attaches great importance to simplifying and clarifying Community law so as to make it clearer and more accessible to the ordinary citizen, thus giving him new opportunities and the chance to make use of the specific rights it gives him. This aim cannot be achieved so long as numerous provisions which have been amended several times, often quite substantially, remain scattered, so that they must be sought partly in the original instrument and partly in later amending ones. A consolidation of rules that have frequently been amended is also essential if Community law is to be clear and transparent. On 1 April 1987, the Commission therefore decided to instruct its staff that all legislative measures should be consolidated after no more than 10 amendments. The Conclusions of the Presidency of the Edinburgh European Council (December 1992) confirmed this, stressing the importance of legislative consolidation as it offers certainty as to the law applicable to a given matter at a given time. Parliament and Council agreed, by an interinstitutional agreement, that an accelerated procedure may be used for the fast-track adoption of codification instruments. The purpose of this proposal for legislative consolidation of 94/58/EC on the minimum level of training of seafarers, is to undertake official codification of this type. The new Directive will supercede the various directives incorporated in it, their content is fully preserved, and they are brought together with only such formal amendments as are required by the codification exercise itself. Lastly, this legislative consolidation proposal was drawn up on the basis of a preliminary consolidation, in all the official languages, of Directive 94/58/EC, and the instrument amending it, carried out by the Office for Official Publications of the European Communities, by means of the data-processing system referred to in the conclusions of the European Council meeting in Edinburgh. Although the articles have been given new numbers, the old numbering has been retained in the margin for ease of reference; the correlation between the old and new numbers is shown in a table set out in Annex IV to the consolidated Directive.

Seafarers: minimum level of training

2000/0131(COD) - 04/04/2001 - Final act

PURPOSE : to consolidate Directive 94/58/EC on the minimum level of training of seafarers. COMMUNITY MEASURE : Directive 2001/25/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council concerning the minimum level of training of seafarers. CONTENT : the present Directive aims uniquely, in the interests of clarity and rationality of Community law, to consolidate Council Directive 94/58/EC of 22 November 1994, which has been substantially amended since its adoption. The new Directive shall substitute the various directives which is the objective of the codification operation. It totally respects the substance of the codified texts and aims to regroup them in one single text in bringing only the formal amendments required by the same operation of consolidation. Directive 94/58/EC is repealed and the reference made to this Directive shall be construed as references to this Directive. ENTRY INTO FORCE : 7 June 2001.
