Car insurance: third part liability, better legal protection of accident victims, 5th directive

2000/2126(INL) - 03/07/2001 - Text adopted by Parliament, single reading

The European Parliament adopted the report by Mr Willy ROTHLEY (PES, D). (Please refer to the previous text). In addition, concerning the debate on fifth directive on motor vehicle liability insurance with the aim of improving legal protection of accident victims, Commissioner Fritz BOLKESTEIN said that even if he could not promise that the Commission will be able to submit a proposal within the deadline laid down in Parliament's resolution, it will, however submit 'as soon as possible' a proposal on an overall modernisation of the legislation on motor vehicle liability insurance.
