Implementation of CULTURE 2000 programme

2000/2317(INI) - 28/02/2002 - Text adopted by Parliament, single reading

The European Parliament adopted the report by Vasco GRACA MOURA (EPP-ED, P) on the implementation of the 'Culture 2000' programme. (Please refer to the summary dated 22/01/02). It should be added that the Parliament calls on the Commission, acting in a spirit of interinstitutional cooperation and with the aim of closeness to the citizen, to drawn up a cultural policy blueprint for the cooperation programme which will follow Culture 2000, in connection with the three-year cultural cooperation plan set out in the resolution of 5 September 2001. It also points out that in an enlarged Europe it will be necessary to meet the challenge of preserving, promoting and sharing Europe's common cultural programme in the service of a European cultural policy.

Implementation of CULTURE 2000 programme

2000/2317(INI) - 23/05/2002

The Council was informed of the Commission's intentions regarding the future of the Culture 2000 programme and held a discussion on the subject. The President expressed the wish that the Commission would take delegations' suggestions into account in its further work. Most delegations supported the Commission's intention to propose extending the programme during 2005 and 2006 so that detailed consideration could be given to preparing further proposals for the future of European cultural cooperation beyond 2006. There was, nevertheless, a call for certain defects which had become apparent in the current programme to be eliminated; The Commission felt it would be able to remedy them in the framework of the annual implementation of the programme without referring the matter to the Council and the European Parliament.
