EC/Senegal fisheries agreement: periods from 1st May to 31 July 2001 and 1st August to 31 December 2001

2001/0168(CNS) - 25/10/2001 - Text adopted by Parliament, 1st reading/single reading

The European Parliament adopted the report by Pat the Cope GALLAGHER (UEN/IRE). As it stands the two parties, through an exchange of letters, have provisionally agreed that Community fisherman will continue fishing activities in Senegalese waters until the end of this year. This covers the two periods - May 2001 to July 2001 and August 2001 to December 2001. However, the Commission wants to extend this protocol, which currently benefits Spain, France, Portugal, Italy and Greece. In exchange for fishing opportunities, the European Community will pay Senegalese Government EUR 1 million per month - at the end of the year.

PURPOSE: To extend the fishing agreement between the Republic of Senegal and the European Union. CONTENT: The current Protocol to the Fisheries Agreement between the Community and the Republic of Senegal expired on 30 April 2001. These two extensions of the Protocol, setting out the technical and financial conditions governing the fishing activities of Community vessels off the coast of Senegal during the periods 1 May to 31 July 2001 and 1 August to 31 December 2001, were initialled by both parties on 23 April and 1 June 2001. A proposal for a Council decision on the provisional application of the two extensions pending their definitive entry into force is the subject of a separate procedure.
